Lol. You just rung the dinner bell for the Russophobes...

But seriously, maybe a WH spox. Maybe. But a school district spox? Cmon

I'm with you 100%. The market probably bears $80-90K, max, depending on the size of the staff. Also: school district PR outfits don't need many staff.

.@KenDilanianNBC It's important to know the facts of stories you tweet about. You're clearly not well informed on this one. @dbongino

> Ken Dilanian @KenDilanianNBC
> Such a dishonest argument. Trump's son accepted help from a foreign adversary. Steele got info from sources inside Russia who may have risked their lives talking to him. Those are NOT the same things. It's actually what the CIA does every single day.

#MIDTERMS!
@MichaelRCaputo

Folgen

#CannonballRun4: To derail conservative Supreme Court nominee, Democrat activists must drive cross country in record time for Senate Judiciary hearing. Witness at the wheel. Dom Deluise rides shotgun. Hilarity ensues.

> Jennifer Rubin @JRubinBlogger
> Republicans are all about victims going through hell. Rape victims need to drive 100's of miles to get an abortion in their world. Ford has to drive faster across country. The gender gap is goin' look like the Grand Canyon

The CI investigation didn't start until he fired Comey. There was no investigating of him prior. Also, an investigation doesn't mean anyone's guilty. It's their job to look and see.

I respect your informed opinion: we know DAG Rosenstein wrote the rationale memo laying out the case to fire Comey. Did they investigate his Kremlin connections too?

Also: why were none of the Trump CI investigation leaders named in this story? That's really contorted reporting.

Senate Republicans must start committee investigations into top Dems today. When the Dems lose the House in 2020, House GOPers must investigate Dem House leaders. Pick a person, find a crime. Of course it's not right, but we must fight fire with fire or only we will be consumed.

I'm humbled to have the support of @ScottAdamsSays, a guy I deeply respect. This Russia Collusion Delusion has gone on long enough. I've testified 3 times. Somebody has to be the first to take a stand. For the sake of my family – for 81 families – it might as well be me. #MAGA

It's a fire hall buddy so there's one ambulance, two pumpers and a ladder truck. Maybe they should ignore your next emergency.

@JoAnneSimonBK52 Your gun raffle ban hurts upstate fire halls and even WNY Democrat leaders do not support your bill.

I stand corrected. This is an important issue and I'll pass your position on to others who are concerned. This bill must fail and you could help by addressing it with our delegation, Albany leadership and the bill's sponsor.

Mark won't do that but I've delivered his Tweet to area fire hall leaders telling them he supports their position on the gun raffle ban. I don't care about politics on this. If he supports their fight, good for him and let's fight against the bill without politics attached.

The ONLY WAY?? What a crock. They've never heard of meat raffles, silent auctions, Chiavettas BBQ...? Plenty of WNY nonprofits raise 10s of 1,000s of $$ while somehow managing not to include weapons designed to kill.

StillStandingPodcast.com @MichaelRCaputo · 47 Min.

Your fear of guns is not the issue here.

Cranky Pants @wilde_cathy · 27 Min.

The only issue I'm commenting on is your statement that gun raffles are the "ONLY WAY" these groups can raise money. It's BS and you know it.

Agreed, it was hyperbole, but the fact remains that many fire companies across WNY each rely on 2 gun raffles a year, massive volunteer projects, which bring in more than 15 chicken barbeques ever could.

John McCain and Paul Manafort had history; McCain was close with Paul's longtime business partner. Paul worked tirelessly for McCain. They knew each other well.

McCain knew his efforts validated the bogus dossier, and that this would destroy Manafort. To him, it was worth it.

White House releases letter sent to Office of Special Counsel regarding recommendation to fire Kellyanne Conway. Calls the recommendation "outrageous" and "unprecedented."

Indeed, the Report is based on numerous grave legal, factual, and procedural errors. First, even assuming that the Hatch Act applies to the most senior advisers to the President in the White House, OSC has violated its statutory obligation to provide Ms. Conway a reasonable opportunity to respond, violated Ms. Conway's due process rights, and abused its discretion by issuing a Report tainted by inappropriate external influences. Second, OSC's overbroad and unsupported interpretation of the Hatch Act risks violating Ms. Conway's First Amendment rights and chills the free speech of all government employees. In fact, OSC has no legal authority to promulgate guidance on social media use that it treats effectively as binding rules in order to enforce its overbroad interpretation of the Act. Third, contrary to your letter, Ms. Conway's Twitter account and her media appearances do not violate even the standards used by OSC itself. Worst of all, OSC's "call" upon the President "to remove Ms. Conway from her federal position immediately" is as outrageous as it is unprecedented. OSC's overreaching recommendation is wholly unsupported by any statute or the Constitution. Additionally, it appears that OSC has not been applying its vague standards evenhandedly across Democratic and Republican administrations.

At first I laughed today, but it's not funny. They put this doddering hasbeen in charge so they were free to rip your men apart. He didn't investigate, didn't write the report. He didn't even hire the team! They set HRC jackals loose on my family to get you.

THERE IS NO JUSTICE!

I'm not sure who's calling the shots at the diocese on media relations but they've made a series of beginner mistakes. I'm appalled as a parishioner whose family is invested in this diocese - kids in Catholic schools, etc. With so much at stake, they need to do far, far better.

No doubt, and survivors must eat. Sometimes the costs taxpayers are billed for baloney and cheese sandwiches are pretty great, too.

You hear these survivor stories in the wake of hurricanes after the hype move on, like in Puerto Rico post Maria.

While you would be wrong, there's certainly nothing wrong with being a government contractor.

Again many are not yet under contract in Abaco, but any NGO there that has done recovery contracting before is lining up a contract now which can include payment for present activity.

Vote absentee in PR for reform at home, or re-register as a Florida resident Democrat to vote against Trump. That's the value proposition of the Democrat registration drive operatives. It's a tough sell with civic minded, proud Puerto Ricans.

#HurricaneMaria is trying to defeat @realDonaldTrump in 2020. This is a Cat5 Florida election storm.

Since Pres. Donald Trump's 112,000 margin of victory over Hillary Clinton in Florida in 2016, Republican fortunes have waned in the state: in 2018, Gov. Ron Desantis won by only 33,000 votes and Sen. Rick Scott by just 10,000. By credible estimates, 100,000+ displaced Puerto Ricans have registered to vote in Florida since Hurricane Maria destroyed their island in September 2017. This is being accomplished through a vigorous registration drive along the I-4 corridor, including official government outreach efforts by Orlando area Democrats.

Chris Murphy @ChrisMurphyCT

I don't know what is in the whistleblower complaint, but it was clear to me that Ukraine officials were worried about the consequences of ignoring Giuliani's demands. And of course they were. That's why presidents shouldn't have their campaigns talking to foreign leaders.

From the time he caught the WH bug, his moves became part of the long game (which he's quite good at playing. His long game is better than his short) .... this from @kfrancisco

LoBianco writes. "The moneymen who had been with him since his very first run for Congress – Fred Klipsch, Jim Kittle, Van Smith, Dan Dumezich, Bob Grand – sat at the table with him and Marty Obst and political operative Kyle Robertson. Pence went around the table, one by one, 'What am I going to do?' he asked. Every fund raiser sitting around the table was already supporting Mitch Daniels for president. Even if Pence wanted to run for president, he wouldn't have his core team behind him. Mitch Daniels had gotten to them first."

Those moneymen persuaded Pence to instead run for governor, promising to clear likely GOP candidates – Lt. Gov. Becky Skillman and Indiana House Speaker Brian Bosma among them – out of the way.

LoBianco's insightful book reveals how Pence's campaign for governor and his one term in office served mostly as an extended audition for the national stage. At his campaign announcement in his hometown, the candidate "riled up the crowd by promising to fight Obamacare and strict environmental regulations – all things that would be far easier to fight as a congressman than as a governor."

Overturned. The courts in Ukraine are still like the courts in Russia - there's no real rule of law. Working class Ukrainians hate it, but the self appointed elite love it: the law is their parlor game. Leshchenko is a cynical player in that third world theater.

A Q for those saying this doesn't change much. The Dem House will impeach. And then the GOP will spend an entire election year explaining why the Senate won't convict. An election year defending this? That's not a change? Hell just got hotter for the GOP in the age of Trump.

You are intentionally obtuse. Russians leveraged social media to impact our elections, that's settled. The hoax was the pack of lies about collusion advanced by state players in several countries to stop President Trump - proven false by Robert Mueller.

You can't stop this.

Benjamin Linus @Ben_Linus64 · 40m

You seem to be ignoring the fact that trump's campaign chair, manafort was cooperating with russia and his national security advisor, Flynn was an unregistered foreign agent. Both are in jail because of Mueller investigation.

Atkina Starling @atkinastarling · 10m

Except that manafort was found guilty of tax fraud, not collusion. NYT said "Mr. Manafort's trial did not touch directly on Mr. Mueller's inquiry into Russian interference in the 2016 election or on whether Mr. Trump has sought to obstruct the investigation."

I worked with Hurricane Maria victims in Puerto Rico thru the summer & recently returned. There are few remote studios in San Juan so I fell off CNN's radar. I have friends there & sometimes miss the debate, but the death threats have stopped. That's a relief to me and my girls.

A lot of quiet conversations among conservative thought leaders today about how to prepare for a "post Trump" Republican Party—whether its impeachment or a loss in 2020. People thinking about how that shakes out and where they fit. This is not good for Trump.

That's not how it works. Trump took office 1/20/2017. Obama political appointees resigned. Career officials stay on unless new President requests resignation from post and person is reassigned. It's absurd to think Obama continued to operate Dept of State after Trump took office.

"Nobody is above the law" is a message no sentient American believes anymore.

At some point, it'll sink in and the party that first says "We've got a 2-tier justice system and we'll help you climb up to the right one" wins.

The money you wasted on printing without proofreading is nothing compared to the wildly expensive town hall renovation. Or the bridges.

I rarely agreed with the Chairman, but I respected him. He died far too young. Rest In Peace.

Just read Bill Taylor's statement

Fire him immediately for undermining US foreign policy, failure to duly represent the President, and for putting the interests of a foreign country over the interests of the American people

There is one president and it's not Bill Taylor

Trump promotes no "US foreign policy." He only promotes Trump policy. He doesn't act on behalf of the US, he only acts on behalf of Trump. He will be impeached for putting the interests of Trump over the interests of the American people. Taylor, unlike Trump, serves his country.

Why no recent announcements of big foreign donations to the @ClintonFdn? What about their amazing fundraising? Why did that dry up?

When the Clintons lost access to US power and money, that corruption came to a screeching halt. No more jiggery-pokery. Let's end all of it.

Would those be the same polls that said "HILLARY would win"? You need to break out of that matrix they built for us. Wake up

So polls are never right? Is that your position? We'll see.

Carrie Dixon ★★★ @carrie_dixonLHC · 10h

Polls are manipulated in many different ways. A lot of times, it's smoke and mirrors. Like I said, meant to manipulate us.

Good thing you don't need polls to see how people feel about him. If the 2018 midterms were an indication, Dems will wipe him out next year.

It will be a battle to the end for sure. If the Dems don't nominate a leftist, they are in the fight strong.

Then your next map will REALLY suck.

and Judy Landa, owed more than $200,000 in back taxes to the county and city and thousands more to local businesses that contracted with them.

Fast forward to now: the Landas still owe hundreds of thousands to the county and city; however, they just donated the building to a local charity to avoid foreclosure and recently both GAVE INDIVIDUALLY $107,300, $214,600 in total, to the NYS Republican Party, which we believe is being used to pay for my opponent's negative mail and slimy false commercials. Additionally, downstate associates of the Landas yesterday donated tens of thousands to the GOP as well to pay for these hit pieces.

I think it is important for the public to know my opponent sides with the downstate owners who owe more than $200,000 to the people of this community, but I stand with the people of our community.

You carried Russia hoax water so long it's hard to take your political input seriously. You're good at your kind of war but you suck at politics. Guys like Jordan are far better at it. Maybe try to learn from them.

What are you talking about? She's running against Max Rose. A man who said he would not vote for impeachment but he did,as a Jewish congressman lacks the balls to call out the anti-Semitism of his party and panders to the squad. The choice for Nichole Malliotakis is a no brainer.

For all the "Democracy Dies in Darkness" & "Facts First", it's ironic stories that get light & stories smothered in darkness (based on whether it hurts Trump). DC journos have tried very way to attack & delegitimize John Durham's DOJ probe for the truth.

I think President Trump should consider pardons or clemency for all people who were loyal to him and got caught in the FAKE Russia Hoax

Flynn and Stone were targeted by our own government as a way to get back at Trump

They are suffering ONLY because Trump beat Hillary

In her open courtroom interview, the foreman said she might run for office again in the future. Will she run soon? Will she try to get some lift out of her leadership role in the Stone trial?

If it was disclosed at the time jurors were selected, what is the issue? If there was cause to excuse her as a juror, this would have been argued at the time. Each party also typically has"peremptory" challenges, by which a potential juror can be striken with no reason given.

Not much of a response to the point.

Is Stone's appeal strategy going to be that he had inadequate counsel because they didn't strike this juror?

Or are you saying that Roger didn't get a fair shake due to the insidious, deep-state machinations of "Big Jury"?

I welcome The Hill's review of my Ukraine columns and suggested it myself a month ago. I believe it won't be hard for The Hill to review these since all my source documents and original interviews are linked for all to see. Plus witnesses have affirmed much of what I wrote.

w/o college degrees, aka Trump's base.

There are 15-20 legitimately vulnerable R House seats. #NY21 isn't remotely one of them.

126 173 748

Dave Wasserman @Redistrict · 8h

There were plenty of personally popular, moderate R House members who got crushed in 2018 b/c Trump was radioactive in their districts (see Orange Co. & North Jersey).

Stefanik (R) crushed Cobb (D) by 14% (btw, Cobb spent $1.5m), mostly b/c #NY21 warmed to Trump before she did.

19 17 64

Dave Wasserman @Redistrict · 7h

Has Stefanik grandstanded at impeachment hearings? Absolutely. Will it cost her back home? Not as long as #NY21 has more in common culturally w/ northern Minnesota/Michigan than Brooklyn or Chappaqua.

Trump is 3 years under siege by human scum, so he's going to say it. Crowdstrike is suspicious but I'm not sure what it's got to do with Ukraine. I back his America First foreign policy agenda, and I'm fine with where we are in the world today - our history brought messy times.

.@BillWhitakerCBS Solid piece on @60Minutes last night. One question: Do you believe only Russia, or only Ukraine, could have meddled in our 2016 elections - not both? twitter.com/BillWhitakerCB ...

> There was a lot of testimony during this past week's impeachment inquiry about foreign interference in our 2016 election, including the president's assertion that Ukraine was involved. But the president's own intelligence agencies say it was the Russians who "hacked" the 2016 elections. Special counsel Robert Mueller spelled it out in his report.

Durham did though.

I never expected anything out of the IG. I have an informed opinion on who's really investigating.

My PR firm does litigation communications - that, plus the Russia hoax, has me working with several former US Attorneys. All of them, Dems and GOP, dampened my hopes for a tough DOJ-IG report.

Don't expect anything substantive from the IG, they all said. You'll be disappointed.

I'm amused to see so many Washington insiders taken in by the notion that the President only heard of this gambit 2 weeks after the leaker filed his complaint on August 12 after skulking around Washington for almost 3 weeks to assemble the ruse.

I assumed the President knew about the CIA leaker much earlier, as it seems much of Washington did. Heck, if Adam Schiff knew before the complaint was even filed, you know he can't keep a secret.

I'm amused to see so many Washington insiders taken in by the notion that the President only heard of this gambit 2 weeks after the leaker filed his complaint on August 12 after skulking around Washington for almost 3 weeks to assemble the ruse.

I assumed the President knew about the CIA leaker much earlier, as it seems much of Washington did. Heck, if Adam Schiff knew before the complaint was even filed, you know he can't keep a secret.

Also: this proves absolutely nothing. 🤣

The bots were out while I slept! They can't change 3 things:

1) Ukraine Pres Poroshenko pushed his US Embassy to interfere in our election with a US citizen.

2) Poroshenko pals created the Black Ledger and spun it into the US election media.

3) Investigations are coming.

The one thing all the talking heads that back Trump on corruption allegations: they never read the reports, they don't read/watch the testimony, and they don't care about the facts when they're not in their favor.

I've not seen the IG report, but the DOJ-IG likely defines "informant" as "an asset paid by the FBI." If they give information for free, are they just passersby? FBI didn't pay Halper, DoD did. Greenberg likely wanted but didn't get money. Mifsud was just helpful to his CIA pals.

Untrue statement. @MichaelRCaputo is very well educated on these issues. Hell he had FBI informants ran at him. You'd know this if YOU educated yourself on the testimony and facts.

Your view would be different.

I'm paying tuition and looking at the bogus class work, seeing through the scam. When I graduated UB 23 years ago, it was already tilting down.

And you're getting paid. But cancer research is real work, while watching films twice a week is not.

Salary bloat is not a tiny problem, nor is nepotism, adjunct abuse, tuition, and tenure.

I don't think unis should be scrapped entirely and built anew. But there's no courage to solve the problems so we're heading for collapse. The next system must fix these arrogant mistakes.

I know there are properly motivated faculty but you'll never convince me the Faculty Senate is open to fixing any of these problems. They're run by the other kind of faculty.

To the Faculty Senate, those wanting to pay a reasonable cost are the problem.

Having said that, Barrett is a pretty solid reporter. I note this important detail, which he made quite clear.

> The draft, though, is not final. The inspector general has yet to release any conclusions, and The Washington Post has not reviewed Horowitz's entire report, even in draft form. It is also unclear whether Durham has shared the entirety of his findings and evidence with the inspector general or merely answered a specific question.

Because all I see is faux rage from the usual shills because of how unable they are to defend Trump's impeachable offenses.

This is peak contemporary Democrat: overplay the hand, try too hard, hate too much, miss your mark, cross the line, blow the play - ruin the entire day.

Karlan was downright embarrassing. House Dems start at less than zero on Judiciary Day 2. They blew this bigly.

Caleb Hull @CalebJHull
Pamela Karlan apologies for invoking 13 year old Barron Trump during the impeachment hearing, but then immediately shifts to Trump and says he should apologize too.

At the same time, Leiter - who served as John Kerry's chief of staff in the US Senate - signed on as Burisma's lobbyist. He likely made $500K+ in that gig, working for a corrupt company directed by two men in business with Heinz, son of his old boss.

Kerry pulled back from what Biden and Archer were doing -- he didn't become a Burisma Dir. at $83,000 a month, while the other two did. I'm not sure if he was still a part of Rosemont Seneca Partners when they signed the deal in China. At some point, Rosemont Capital pulled out.

I'm very married and public about it but still have females (and males) drop in the DMs from time to time (daily when I was younger) asking me to have sex with them. I had two new ones last week.

I wonder if the celebrated "Dadbod" gets that as much as a bodybuilder does?

You and Amber are probably right: in 2020 @Nate_McMurray will get the same vote in NY27 that Bernie got in 2016: less than Hillary, who beat Bernie and lost to Trump 60-35.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — Monday, December 9, 2019

Statement of U.S. Attorney John H. Durham

"I have the utmost respect for the mission of the Office of Inspector General and the comprehensive work that went into the report prepared by Mr. Horowitz and his staff. Let's just call it a budget of $50 million. That's all. No more.

I think it's plenty of money.

They'll actually get intended results, not just mop up process and unrelated crimes and indict shadowy foreigners who fit the hoax narrative yet will never ever be prosecuted.

They were in quite a rush.

was met in the applicable circumstance. See CHSPG §§ 19.2 & n.12.

[illegible] Strzok was promoted to CD Section Chief in February 2016, and later to Deputy Assistant Director (DAD) of CD's Operations Branch I on September 4, 2016.

[illegible] The one issue Case Agent 1 remembered Strzok weighing in on was how aggressively to task one of the CHSs. Case Agent 1 told the OIG he remembered Strzok voicing concern that the investigative team was using the CHS "too often" and that repeated use of a CHS could possibly raise suspicions. Case Agent 1 told the OIG he disagreed and thought the team should be more aggressive "given the compressed time frame in which we had to operate" but characterized the discussion as "just a normal kind of give and take" that occurs in planning CHS operations.

He fired him for a variety of reasons, but yes, one of those reasons was because Comey attempted to extort Trump using the dossier and bizarrely would not state publicly that which he had assured Trump privately no less than three times: that he was not under investigation.

Lisa's not wrong, but 1000s of her text messages were destroyed and likely would shed more light on FBI anti-Trump activity. All of them would eventually be revealed via FOIA. They're probably still gettable, but nah, right?

All illegal leaks must be prosecuted. Even Jezebel's.

IMO -- CH was staffed with both Trump haters and Trump fans. Too many agents involved in the various segments for it to be 100% haters. Messages between some happy with election outcome shows that.
But there was another bias in play -- bias towards "the mission". 1/

This is very common in law enforcement — I was guilty of it when I was a prosecutor. Let me give you an example from the IG report.

shipwreckedcrew @shipwreckedcrew · 6h
Nowhere in the recording does Page say anything that implicates him or the Trump campaign in anything having to do with Russian interference or hacking otherwise extremely thin FISA application. But from that "nothing" conversation, 3 different Special Agents came away thinking he knew more than he said.

That is "bias in favor of the mission". 10/

FBI agents do not get assigned to "investigations" to find out stuff -- in 99% of their work they begin with the default position that the crime has been committed and their mission is to put together the evidence to prove that crime. 12/

That's why CH went on for nearly 10 months without generating any meaningful evidence of a "malign" connection between the Trump campaign and Russian govt' operatives, but they kept up the effort nevertheless. 13/

My attorneys told IG Horowitz of 3 different possible CHS approaches. Two PIs proved Greenberg worked as a paid FBI CHS for 17 years, including copies of his FBI signed informant visas. (Check out the proof at democratdossier.com/dossier/)

IG report doesn't even admit he's theirs.

> In our review, we did not find any evidence that the FBI used CHSs or UCEs to interact with members of the Trump campaign prior to the opening of the Crossfire Hurricane investigation. All of the members of the Crossfire Hurricane team told the OIG that no investigative steps of any type were taken prior to receipt of the predicating information for the Crossfire Hurricane investigation on July 28, 2016, and we found no evidence to the contrary.
> We investigated allegations that the FBI used specific individuals to undertake CHS activities prior to the predication of Crossfire Hurricane. For example, we investigated an allegation that the FBI sent a CHS (known as "Henry Greenberg" by other aliases) to meet with Trump advisors Roger Stone and Michael Caputo in March 2016, to offer to sell derogatory information about Hillary Clinton for $2 million. We found no evidence in the FBI's Delta files or from witness testimony that this individual was acting as an FBI CHS for any purpose in 2016.

Lisa's not wrong, but 1000s of her text messages were destroyed and likely would shed more light on FBI anti-Trump activity. All of them would eventually be revealed via FOIA. They're probably still gettable, but nah, right?

All illegal leaks must be prosecuted. Even Jezebel's.

As usual, Caputo is spreading lies because of his fear and hatred for immigrants. @markpoloncarz is correct on the Green Light Law. Erie County stands behind its immigrants. Our immigrant forefathers built this County and this Nation.

Fox News is NOT considered news, but ENTERTAINMENT.

The number of inaccuracies, conjectures and the amount of opinion oriented coverage make it Fox Entertainment.

Journalism has vetting standards.
- verifying stories and objectively reporting should be the objective of 'good news'

MSNBC and CNN include 'expert opinion' also, which is annoying, but usually based on well vetted news.

Twisting stories to fit political agenda is corrosive.

Incredibly tone deaf take in the Inside the Beltway @Monthly: "America loves the DoJ/FBI who broke rules over and over to pursue the Republican candidate for President and we should probably elect one as president." Written by, you guessed it: a former Clinton-backing DOJ Dem.

5) Will a Senate trial automatically happen?

No!

The Senate can't begin a trial unless the House sends over the articles of impeachment. In short, it is FAR FROM A FAIT ACCOMPLI THAT A SENATE TRIAL WILL HAPPEN as long as the House doesn't send the Senate articles over.

You have to admit it's cunning. It's also rather risky. Trump types wanted a trial to maximize damage in target CDs/states; Beltway Republicans wanted to play it safe and dispense with it quickly. Now every day Nancy delays could be a good day for both Trumpers and Beltway GOP.

Based on his DOJ oversight authority vested in him as the Executive, independent of judicial action on the same question, he thereby orders all pending prosecutions to be abandoned by DOJ, and all persons who have suffered a conviction are pardoned. Do it all at one time.

He would not have to justify the pardons in the normal sense -- he could justify the pardons on the simple basis that the misconduct of the FBI and DOJ -- across an entire front of activity --- "shocks the conscience" as that phrase is interpreted in the case law.

I've been impressed with Cruz in the Trump era. He seems to have moved on with a positive outlook and is policy focused. He'll stick with the President. I'm a Cruz convert.

Jerome Corsi is suing me for $25 million in a "bizarre" lawsuit that has so far cost our family $20,000. It will be thrown out eventually, and he knows it, but it will cost my children their tuition. For nothing.

@SaraCarterDC why celebrate this person?

Solid story on @joshrogin's #fakenews for #NeverTrump operatives claiming Trump staffer changed GOP platform for Putin. Wrote Trump visited Ukraine 9/15.

Very interesting. Did Vivadelli use the Italian words for “crazy expenses” or English in your interview? I notice this unique phrase appears in all accounts of Mifsud and Agrigento.

I don’t think it’s an Italian legal term. It sounds like a developed & shared phrase - a script?

This is dishonest agenda-driven reporting by @gregpmiller and @GregJaffe. They paint Soros as some kind of victim-hero but he's quite the opposite. And they know it.

> A billionaire financier and Holocaust survivor, Soros has used his fortune to fight the spread of authoritarianism and bigotry. He has also become associated with a "globalist" agenda opposed by many on the right, and his name is frequently invoked in anti-Semitic slurs.

It took @HouseDemocrats 9 days to come up with this weak and inaccurate video defense of their impeachment scam. They were on vacation the whole time, and this is the best they could do.

This liberal reporter's story is chock full of progressive shot calling, like this indolent yap back curated to shut down all criticism of billionaire George Soros.

> Mona Fishman, a singer from the Las Vegas area who performed at the event, has written Trump-themed songs with titles like "Fake News" and "Smells like Soros," which accuses liberal megadonor George Soros of running a shadow government, a trope widely condemned as anti-Semitic.

I have some questions about Ukraine. You should too.

Like: why didn't Burisma owner Zlochesky ever land on the sanctions list?

Other escaped Yanukovych oligarchs were sanctioned in 2014. How did he slip away?

Hunter Biden joined the Burisma board in 2014.

Pure coincidence.

Biden told Ukraine Pres Poroshenko he'd stop $1B energy aid if he didn't fire the top investigator on Burisma - $2B was already sent. How much of that went to Hunter's employer, the largest natural gas company? We don't know.

Why are USG types telling Ukraine not to investigate?

Here's a vital question: was Devon Archer already on the Burisma board when he met with Joe Biden?

We don't know.

And why was that meeting so long?

Kevin @k_e_v_i_n_07 · Jan 2

Why is no one asking how a famous CIA analyst like Cofer Black ends up on their board also.

No doubt. I think Black left before his term was up.

But nobody on Planet Earth was unaware of Burisma's massive corruption. All the board members knew when they joined.

Another question: what did Joe Biden and Devon Archer discuss in their West Wing meeting in April 16, 2014? It was the same day the U.K. SFO announced the Burisma asset freeze and just days before Hunter was added to the board. Another coincidence?

And another: why did the intensity of criticism of Shokin and contact between Biden and Poroshenko both significantly increase immediately after the announcement that the Ukraine PGO had seized Zlochevsky's land, home, and cars?

In 2016 Ukraine's top prosecutor began confiscating houses, luxury cars etc from Burisma's Zlochevsky. His most active case.

Within days, Biden was on the phone to Poroshenko urging his termination. Several times.

Only then was Shokin fired.

Was the timing just a coincidence?

Wray was appointed by Trump.
Maybe Wray is not helping as much to cover up Trump's and his people's crimes as Bill Barr.
If Trump thinks Wray is not a very good consigliere, it is his own dumb fault he put him there.

I agree, heads must roll at all these alphabet agencies. But how to ID the ones who must be terminated? Put somebody in place to take a fire hose to every floor. This is a broken system, not just a few broken people. And FISA/FISC must be killed dead.

This is how fucking clueless The Senate is...if you are going to call ANYONE, call Vadym Pozharsky. He is a Burisma excutive tired directly to Congresswoman Marcy Kaptur, Evelyn Farkas, William Taylor, George Kent, and Marie Yovanovitch. He will sing like a canary.

Um, the corruption at Burisma left when Zlochevsky fled Ukraine with Viktor Yanukovych, Manafort's former boss. Biden wasn't even with the company when it was under investigation, and Burisma is a private, not government, firm, so FARA wouldn't apply here.

It would be stunning if this became the norm. Altho seems equally amazing that this is now on a cycle of every 20 years (give or take) - tho, worth noting Mueller probe didn't officially trigger this, was an entirely new scandal, Ukraine, which did it

Impeachment was the ultimate goal of Russia Russia Russia but they failed. They also took too long fail. The Ciaramella complaint was ginned up hastily; it was all they had. The obstruction allegation, a total loser in court, was just an homage to their doddering god Bob Mueller.

So many pens that Pelosi will sign to officially transmit the articles of impeachment and sign resolution appointing House managers. Why so many? They will be given away to members like House managers as a symbol of today.

It's the Kavanaugh Strategy, the Russia Strategy, the Impeachment Strategy - it's all the Christmas Tree strategy: hang more ornaments on the tree, one at a time, daily if you can, filling every news cycle with new negatives. They don't all have to be big, they just have to hang.

Since Poroshenko stands accused of massive corruption and he interfered in the 2016 US election, American Normals can see why Zelensky, a fine man, might be more interested in exposing the Biden scam and Poroshenko interference.

But no. Let's just promote Democrat spin. 🙁

Sciutto knows that if Trump spoke with Poroshenko about Biden, it would predate Biden's candidacy by MONTHS. This essentially invalidates the 2020/Political Rival narrative of the Impeachment Article. So he is doing gymnastics here. @MichaelRCaputo @DevinNunes @dbongino FACT: Corrupt Ex-President Poroshenko worked with Americans and used Ukraine state resources to interfere in the 2016 US election in Kyiv and Washington.

This is proven and undeniable.

The question: are reporters and investigators interested in the truth or Democrat outcomes?

I believe he's referring to Naftogaz of Ukraine, one of the 3 biggest companies in the country. By the way, Joe Biden's senior energy advisor serves on the Naftogaz board of directors.

Why are so many people in the Biden orbit working at Ukraine energy companies?

The Mumbler. I remember sitting in a CNN green room, watching Lieu pace back and forth, mumbling to himself.

"What's this?" I asked a CNN regular who was set to appear on the show with me.

"He's practicing his lines," she rolled her eyes.

We both had a laugh at The Mumbler.

For years I've trained CEOs and politicians on TV appearances. It's hard work and you need to prepare.

But I tell them don't practice memorization in front of others, especially other guests.

It just makes you look really stupid. Combine that with de-rhotacism and you get Lieu.

Speaking as a sentient human being, his thinking That Alan Deshowitz and Ken Starr need weeks to prepare a fight against simpleton overhyped articles is deeply amusing.

Puerto Rico belongs to USA, has since 1898 when US troops invaded thru Guanica — consequently the epicenter of the earthquakes now. Before that, it was a Spanish colony. By law, Congress is responsible for PR. Not to discount local govt problems, but it's the US' problem too.

Copernicus was an astronomer & mathematician.
FEMA's been screwing up relief distribution since Katrina. They didn't fix the lack of key supplies on PR before the storm, challenge with delivering emergency supplies & failed to track supplies to the island & through distribution.

Schumer always takes the bait. Wearing senators out on meaningless process votes day 1 when his entire strategy relies upon bipartisan consent for a drawn out process. The mood in the chamber will be toxic by Saturday.

The party chairs from all counties in NY27 make a pick for the special election. That candidate runs against the Democrat in the special election. Winner serves until end of 2020. Primary in June for party line and general election in November. November winner serves next

A special election allows 8 chairs to choose, not party voters. The chairs don't even let their committeemen provide input. That's how NY27 is such a mess in the first place. It's an unfortunate process, made worse by a parallel contest. Nobody is happy with it but the insiders,

So... impeachment.

Every former ambassador since our founding was removed by a phone call, email or telegram from POTUS saying essentially, "Get rid of her." Breathlessly reporting this call as if it's some sort of smoking gun only spins up the fraudulent claim that Trump did something wrong.

The story says this recording of Trump & Lev Parnas (who he's repeatedly said he doesn't know) talking about taking out Yovanovitch was made by Igor Fruman. Unless it was somehow in Parnas' cache of materials, this could imply Fruman is also cooperating. abcn.ws/36oVYHu

Bloomberg will ignore Democrat party orthodoxy and be the first one to take Hunter shots at Biden, lighting him on fire.

If Bloomberg isn't happy with his early returns (where he competes) he will know his only path to the White House goes through Ukraine.

But he doesn't win.

I agree with your first two sentences. But Ms. Kelly says she never agreed to 'off the record'. Why would she? I wouldn't have in that circumstance. Also, today Ms. Kelly provided emails showing she clearly told the Secretary's staff that she was going to ask about Ukraine.

I speak with reporters off the record often, even at WGRZ. A cabinet secretary and his staff does it more often and, with natsec concerns, in clear circumstances. When on/off record goes wrong, it can get ugly. When a reporter does it intentionally for revenge, it's far worse.

Does Hunter Biden have criminal liability for taking the Burisma gig or the Chinese investment money?

Hunter's US criminal liability begins with secret unregistered lobbying of US cabinet secretaries for Burisma and his Ukrainian oligarch boss. Manafort is serving years in prison for a fraction of Hunter's FARA crimes.

This has always been about re-election. The Dems impeached him solely for a campaign issue and Senate Republicans are motivated by November damage control.

It's got nothing at all to do with the framers intent for impeachment. It never did. Sad.

If no witnesses are called in Trump's impeachment trial, the steady drip of new revelations like these will likely reduce any 'nonce to popular support' Trump would otherwise enjoy after his acquittal. https://twitter.com/maggieny/status/1221338223778816512 ...

They didn't subpoena after Bolton's attorney said he would fight it in court. Fair to argue they should have pursued that (along with subpoenas for all other admin. officials who refused to testify). But they did ask Bolton to testify. Not sure why POTUS tweeted the falsehood.

That Michael Caputo @MichaelRCaputo · 6h

He's clearly conflating "ask" and "subpoena." Since the White House made it clear subpoenas were necessary for any invitation, calling the President a liar on this is hair splitting.

They didn't subpoena because they'd lose in court and delay this 100% election focused gambit.

I staffed Biden on every Ukraine call, mtg & trip from fall 2014-2017. I sat in the Oval & SitRoom & coordinated w/State. Everything he did was to advance US policy alongside our allies, internat'l institutions & Ukrainian reformers. No amount of Trump spin changes those facts.

Just a coincidence: As Judge Ronnie Abrams worked to overturn the felony conviction of Hunter Biden's business partner Devon Archer, her husband Greg Andres led the prosecution of Paul Manafort in two trials.

So simultaneously, Ronnie freed Archer while Greg jailed Manafort.

Feb. 2016: "Court seizes property of ex-minister Zlochevsky in Ukraine"

Since the seizure came after the ouster, the record does not dispute the characterization of a dormant probe under Shokin

No. Genl Prosecutor Shokin seized assets from Hunter's boss 2/4/16. Right after the seizures Biden began a flurry of calls to Poroshenko demanding his removal. PP asked for resignation 2/16, got it 2/19.

The probe was active & despite US protests outside his office, continuing.

Again, the timeline can demonstrate that the probe was dormant until Joe Biden's call for Shokin to step down because he was corrupt/feckless.

This Dec 15 L 2015 NYT article indicates Shokin was NOT investigating Burisma

So the contemporaneous record of 2015 shows Shokin wasn't investigating Burisma (& ergo Hunter) when Joe Biden 1st put pressure on Ukraine. Shokin, internationally viewed as corrupt, now says it was due to Burisma in a new claim made in the case of a wanted Putin-tied oligarch Wrong again. Shokin was clearly investigating, "international view" was IMF and EU calls after urging from USEmb and Biden. Orchestrated outcry followed by orchestrated protests, Biden as conductor.

See Hunter's illegal lobbying?

Feb 10: Shokin becomes PG, begins ramping up Burisma inquiry
May: Guardian reporter finds out British SFO Burisma case still ongoing
May 27: Hunter Biden meets with Deputy Secretary of State Blinken
June/July: Shokin warned by USAmb Pyatt not to go after Burisma
July 22: Hunter meets again with Blinken, likely Kerry
Sep 24: US Ambassador Pyatt calls the first time for Shokin resignation
Nov 1: US sponsored street protests against Shokin begin

My new book has plenty of evidence. In Ukraine, the only people who believe the Biden spin are US diplomats and rubes.

2016 began with a White House demand that Burisma case be dropped, Shokin refusing and him being taken out by Biden-Kerry after illegal Archer-Hunter lobbying.

The NYT was wrong on this. Burisma was active, Shokin was determined after the UKSFO requests were unanswered and when became PG and moved on Burisma.

Burisma was literally the most active investigation in his office. Biden et al are lying. And his son violated US federal law.

Considering Shokin was in the process of transferring investigative jurisdiction of the Burisma case over to NABU once they were up and running seems a consideration in the timeline of events.

Sure. I'll confess that I was unaware of this at the time so I've had to rely on the contemporaneous records.

What is the timeline for the creation of NABU, the anti-corruption division? Considering Shokin was in the process of transferring investigative jurisdiction of the Burisma case over to NABU once they were up and running seems a consideration in the timeline of events.

NABU was set up by Rada law in late 2014 but wasn't staffed until late 2015. It's not widely respected; many law-and-order types in Ukraine view this US-EU-IMF creation as a violation of their constitution. The director has admitted that he interfered in the 2016 US elections.

While writing this book I went back and forth on Shokin - hero, villain, scapegoat. One thing is for sure: he isn't the guy in the portrait painted by BidenCo.

(Again the seizure came before his ouster. Shokin confiscated Hunter's boss's assets 2/4, resigned 2/19, left 3/29.)

Today marks the end of January but for many Puerto Ricans it's New Year's Eve. After a month of feeling earthquakes nearly every day, Puerto Rican's (who are meme masters) want to cancel January & start anew. A movie theatre in PR even offered New Year discounts today. HNY!

Adrián Florido @adrianflorido
In Puerto Rico today, people are celebrating the end of January as if its another new year's eve. And with memes. It's been a long, tough month.

Perfect comparison.

✅ Bloomberg spends 300M gets maybe 3 points

✅ Trump spends 300M and wins

So who can get more done? The guy who can't get over 10% or the guy who can win for 300M?

I thought it was getting more done for less. 🤔

History will write that @RudyGiuliani was a hero of an inevitable impeachment. By keeping Mueller away from Trump, Rudy avoided a Clintonesque false statement trial. As a result, there was no special counsel report backing a criminal impeachment article.

No crime = acquittal.

I don't think there is any timeline where Rudy ends up looking like a hero. Mueller was always in the tank for the GOP. He didn't even interview Don Jr or look at the financials. The only reason the Ukraine stuff even came to light is because of what a dumbass Rudy is...

Polling is often cynical and fixed, designed to provide the results the sponsor needs. We know this from 2016.

When they get caught like this, it's profoundly hilarious. Note the pollster; discount all future results.

Great charts, my favorite, “important energy milestone reached last year as US energy production as a share of energy consumption topped 100% for the first time since 1956 as America was a net energy exporter for the first time in more than 60 years.”

This poll as has as most of Change Research polling is awful and poorly done. It makes no sense for the @postandcourier, a great institution, to tie themselves with such bad polling.

A poll conducted by targeted online ads. Smh.

House Democrats might have rebutted this by including the other earlier alleged grounds for impeachment in this case — like arguing 'yes we were right then and this impeachment is also about that earlier obstruction' etc, but they went for the 'narrow' case.

The President & The First Lady invited me to sit at their table.

I used to be a foster child in need & to sit with @FLOTUS a women who cares for all children & @realDonaldTrump a man who fights for people of all colors was an honor.

PolitiFact article is quite thorough. If the President had simply said we paid A LOT for the website, he'd be right. But he gave a totally false number (exaggerated by 150% if you go with the $2.1B figure, which includes a lot of non-website costs). You can't think that's ok.

Pelosi demolished decades of tradition in this ill-considered, ill-tempered moment. Many will celebrate her conduct and be thrilled by the insults. However, if she cannot apologize and maintain this tradition, Pelosi should resign as Speaker.

That was an extremely effective speech. It stuck to Trump's strongest points, set traps for his opponents who were easily baited into them, offered viewers powerful moments, and made for incredible reality TV.

If you believe that, let's put money on this. I'll bet you $25 Republicans hold the Senate, $50 we retake the House, and $100 Trump gets re-elected. $100 bonus to whoever wins all 3.

How does your script say you should respond to a put-your-money-where-your-mouth-is challenge?

My obvious point is about how to ID these assholes who orchestrate bullshit Twitter attacks.

They just keep losing, then attacking. It's so cuck.

His highest approval yet in Gallup! Almost half the nation. Still, only POTUS never, not even once, not to achieve majority support in a Gallup poll. After 2 years of Republican control of Congress he brought Pelosi back as Speaker. Can't wait to see what he brings this year.

But who wrote the unsigned 5/16 memo to FusionGPS telling them to work with @Leshchenkos? I believe it's @AlexandraChalup, it could be an Obama official but clearly FusionGPS knows. They won't talk. Only federal investigators can find out for sure. 5/6

This is all in my book "The Ukraine Hoax" with Bombadier Books.

Ukraine wants to investigate but the US Embassy is stopping them.

If we do not investigate 2016 interference and Biden-Burisma, America will prove to be more corrupt than Ukraine. 6/6

The ledger was faked by @Leshchenkos and the US Embassy- and Soros-controlled NABU to take out Manafort.

The legal bills are suffocating but the opportunity costs can be worse. Clients and jobs lost. Careers stalled or killed. Kids college funds gone.

I know one family where the dad and mom were both fired and their bank accounts were locked as college tuitions were due. Wiped out.

Surely he'll have some cracker jack jokes and sarcastic asides as they lead him out in cuffs... A prison ink tramp stamp of Trump, right between Nixon and Stone's ass will provide hours of entertainment in the showers.

I think I'll hold.

The end has come for persecuting Trump associates. The Dems via this impeachment sham have played their hand publically and exposed themselves and the intelligence agencies involved. Time for Trump to clean house and take control.

Lord willing Mr. Caputo! Pardoning Roger Stone will send the message that this miss use of investigative and prosecutorial power will no longer be tolerated! Down with the deep state!

It's hard to even think of our problems when in 10 days #RogerStone will likely be sent to prison for the rest of his life and his wife will be left destitute because he simply didn't want to embarrass his friend, the President.
